

AHS General plan

By: Loran, Kali

Topic: Jobs and economics

- 1) In Atascadero one common issue is the lack of money that you make trying to live here.
- 2) Getting jobs to families and young adults teens and even homeless and providing them with a sustainable and affordable living.
- 3) Minimum wage does not equal living wage

Recommendations

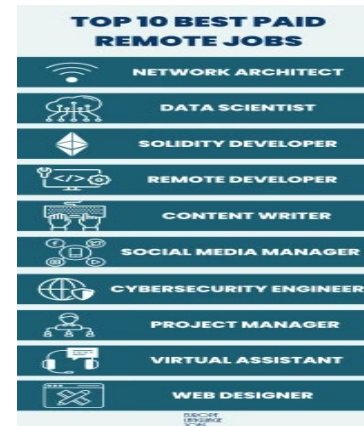

- Home based tech jobs
- Retail stores
- More local shops, like clothing stores
- Trade school

Public Outreach

Home based tech jobs

Knowing that this town is relatively small and does not have much space for many new things, working from home seems like a good option to make good money

Public Outreach

Retail and local shopping stores

Places like Walmart, Target, clothing, and shoe stores would make great jobs for people like teens, young adults, and any other people who struggle to find a job.

Public outreach

Trade schools

Trade schools are a great place to start for those who need a good job and want to start a career. Adding one here would draw more people to come here and help educate people on jobs that they want to do.

Case Study: San Luis Obispo

Many families, young adults, teens and homeless who were either out of a job or in need to make more money have found various tech jobs and income housing.
